Escapades of an It Girl Davita DeLonghe
Escapades is presented in the first-person to enhance the voyeuristic experience as the reader becomes emotionally involved in the triumphs and tragedies of the story's heroine, Marisol Lang…beautiful, brainy and built with a bank account to match her sense of adventure. Escapades is a suspenseful, fast-paced, page turning adventure of American heiress, Marisol Lang, who enters the dangerous world of corporate espionage by posing as a skilled art restorer in the employ of wealthy, British industrialist, Lord Alec Maxwell. She becomes his willing traveling companion as he courts bids from world leaders for the sale of the century…a stolen chemical formula with the potential to transform the economy of any country that possesses it, created by Marisol's father before his death. With the exciting, international cities of London, Monte Carlo, Paris, and Athens as the backdrop, Marisol Lang infiltrates the world of these powerful men to recover the formula containing her father's legacy and accidentally discovers a masterpiece long believed destroyed by the ravages of war. Come along as she falls in love for the first time, finds a best friend and ally in Alec's wife, Lady Charlotte, and exposes the depths of Alec's greed when she reveals his secret cache of stolen masterpieces.
