Gavin The Magnificent Tamika Cole
Their sophomore year of college, Gavin and Quadir buy their first kilo of cocaine. By graduation, they had made a small fortune catering to Entertainers, Congressman, and the Wall Street Junkies to go legit. However, Quadir informed Gavin he had other plans, which didn't include legitimizing their business. Quadir new goal was to become the biggest drug dealer the City of Philadelphia had ever seen. Gavin declined that offer, wanting no parts of selling on the streets, and they parted ways. Years later, Gavin is a successful franchise businessman, with new businesses and opportunities ahead, while Quadir dreams came true as well. He became and feared throughout the city as a ruthless kingpin. They remained friends until Gavin meets Ciani. She's an advocate for the impoverished and when she introduces Gavin to her life and work, it humbles and changes his thought process. Gavin uses his fortune and other resources to help the disadvantaged. His name was spreading through the city like a wild fire, and in no time he gained a reputation as Gavin The Magnificent! When Quadir finds out, Gavin is behind him losing many of his foot soldiers to work for him, all hell breaks loose in Quadir's mind. Their friendship is replaced with hateful revenge. When their paths cross, who will keep their reign as king of the streets?
