Japanese Poetry: For the Love of Haiku and Tanka (Bright Dreams Journal) Gary R. Hess
Japanese Poetry: For the Love of Haiku and Tanka is a fascinating and entertaining take on what haiku and tanka can be in the English language. Gary R. Hess looks at three enlightening ways each poetic form may be written with five examples each for a total of 30 glorious poems. Gary R. Hess uses imagery to perfection as he discusses various topics through his poetry. He takes his readers through the world of nature and the environment, not only describing the locations with excellence but also taking the readers from their chair to the location itself. Hess is best known for his "Bright Dreams Journal", in which this book is the fifth volume. However, unlike other "Bright Dreams Journal" issues, this volume includes discussion pieces to help readers understand the various forms of haiku and tanka using mora and syllables.
