Under siege on the island of Corregidor, General Douglas MacArthur received a warning from the enemy. You are well aware that you are doomed, the Japanese general wrote. The end is near. The question is how long you will be able to resist. You are advised to surrender. Of course, there was no way Douglas was going to surrender.

Whether masterminding strategy and fighting on the front lines to secure Allied victory in World War I and World War II or guiding war-torn nations to recovery in peacetime, five-star General Douglas MacArthur faced every challenge with unwavering courage and resolve.
