For Love of Bunny: A bunny book of poems mark vincent calogero
FOR LOVE OF BUNNY, through its more than 30 bunny poems, describes a rare encounter I had with a real-life bunny. The poems address topics such as: A Bunny's Nature, A Bunny's World, How to Tend and care for a Bunny, A Bunny's Fascination with the Nocturnal Sky, and what to do when faced with a Bunny's Agitation (steer clear!). The sweet, tissue-like, colored illustrations that adorn the poems were sketched by the hand of Heather Freund, a Port Townsend, Washington artist and designer. Share this book with your young child. Share in the warmth and comfort the bunny character exudes. Witness together the bunny's hilarious antics—experience your first bunny "chortle". Let these poems conjure your child's imagination for those "real-life bunnies" that may exist among us. Kindle within your child a sense of the spiritual through the bunny spirit enlivened by these poems. The poems' messages fit best the imaginative minds of children age six or older (and, of course, those adults who have always adored bunnies and their mystical natures).
