The definitive story of black millennials, L.O.V.E- Trials and Tragedies details the story of two young adults searching to find balance in love, their careers and life at a time (in their lives) when every decision could affect them forever. Leon Stevens, an aspiring writer and journalist, is in a rut. He’s recently graduated and his career has yet to take off. His once blossoming relationship with his girlfriend Laila is slowly dying despite his best efforts. And, to make matters worse, a new hire has shown up at his job and is beginning to make him question his relationship. Nadine is a free spirited, attractive, and intelligent woman whose chemistry with Leon is powerful. Together they provide much-needed solace for each other at a critical time in both of their lives. However, there is more to Nadine than what meets the eye. Her hidden secrets threaten to destroy everything that Leon values. Forced to make a decision between what he wants and what he needs, Leon finds himself unable to find answers anywhere but from within. What he finds on his journey will change his outlook on L.O.V.E. forever.
