In Perfect Timing (a Love Undercover Series Book 1) (Volume 1) Beverly Powers
A Love Undercover series: Three men loved the same woman, Laino, each in his own way. To one she was a wife, to another she was a mother, and to the third, she was a sister. She was the driving force behind their family's billion-dollar trucking enterprise, the thread that kept it all together. Tyro Hernandez's life had spiraled into a dark and hopeless world of despair when he lost his mother, until he met the mysterious woman from a dream he had. On the night they first met, he saved her from a near fatal accident. He was drawn to her as if he knew she'd come. Just as they were about to share a lover's kiss, a sudden outburst from spectators of his act of bravery caused him to set her down to shield her from the paparazzi. He took his eyes off of her for only a moment, and just like that, she was gone. She'd slipped right through his fingers just as she had in his dream. In order to find her, he decides to follow his mother's last order of business before she died, he'd work as an undercover boss. He was determined to find the woman he knew was his destiny. Moriah Styles was recently fired from her six-figure marketing career in a company she helped to flourish. She decided to take everything she learned and ultimately became her former employer's biggest competitor—until they played their trump card. With her world being turned completely upside down from her own life's tragedies, falling in love was the last thing she expected. After her encounter with Tyro, she had no idea loving him would forever change her life. But her shameful secrets sabotaged any hopes for their relationship. Will these secrets be the demise of their love? Will the repercussions from saving her life prove to be more than Tyro bargained for? How do they overcome the obstacles that threaten to tear them apart?
