Light from the Heavens: I'll Never Stop Loving You Patricia Hayes
Imagine a book on mystical art and spiritual revelations that begin with one of the most spectacular love stories throughout time; a love that is based on a problematic present life discovery. Section one invites you to enter a romantic involvement, one that reveals the sacred sharing of profound intimacy, healing, forgiveness and acceptance that bridges two souls. This timely script shows how the soul has attractions to people, places and ideas that remain in-tact from one life to another and reveals past life events of soul progression in such a clear manner that one can investigate their own relationships. A Handbook to Higher Consciousness, this reservoir of knowledge inspires, intrigues, provides understanding of ancient mysteries, and gives direction to an ancient meditation process, awakening intuitiveness awareness, spiritual vision and crossing over to mention a few. The 56 full color channeled art pieces that accompany mystical writings give undeniable evidence that we are supported by Light in every step we take toward higher consciousness. Understanding Entura Art is reason to delve into this beautiful book. The author teaches how to enter the energy field (Entura) and create with pastels mesmerizing images from the spiritual realm. Profoundly moving and enticing to one's spirit, this newly accessible tool makes visible the invisible and gives form and expression to something most of us previously found indescribable and intangible. Earning rave reviews, this must read is enjoyed by anyone who desires insight into Spirit, earth situations, and our near future.
