Her World's in Chaos

Sharee Jones didn't plan on falling for a man who resents God, didn't plan on the mutilated dolls or the threatening notes interfering with her Christmas program and the child who's to play baby Jesus. She thought God's hand was in it, but how can it be, when everything she hoped and prayed for is crashing down?

His Days of Hiding Are Done

John Jergenson thought taking the maintenance job at his cousin's church meant leaving his guilt-ridden past behind. But he hadn't counted on Sharee and her program, hadn't counted on her laugh or the warmth in her hazel eyes. And he certainly hadn't counted on her wanting to know the truth about his past life. He wants to leave, but Sharee could be in danger; and if he runs again, will he ever forgive himself?
