Joshua's Bible Shelly Leanne
During a time when black foreign preachers were banned from South Africa and branded as trouble-makers, 24-year-old preacher and level-headed leader Joshua Clay is sent to South Africa as a missionary to "civilise" the Africans. And as a young black man in the 1930s, Joshua knows this is a remarkable opportunity. However, as he sets off on his journey with the many expectations of those at home weighing heavily on him, Joshua is unaware of the changes that lie ahead. Slowly, Joshua falls in love with the people, the country, and, much to his surprise, a South African woman. Through it all, Joshua realises the changes he is experiencing test his strength and faith, and open his eyes forever to his true identity - and to the real meaning of God's love.
