Lord of the Horses - THE MESSENGERS Tom Ravasio
In the fourth book, THE MESSENGERS - Three strange beings appear foretelling messages of the future and revealing secrets of the past to Matt, Brittany, Angelo and Shekinah. Far away from their safe surroundings they are drawn into dramatic searches for centuries old treasures. Together they come face to face with their most dangerous challenges. Shekinah, now a noticeable strong and beautiful stallion, begins his mission. Shekinah starts to speak to the other horses on the Gaudino ranch trying to convince them to ride with him when Jesus returns. Many horses remain skeptical until Shekinah reveals to them his true white color. Following that, many of the horses are convinced he really is 'The Lord of the Horses' as foretold by their ancestors, and they agree to follow him. There is, however, one drawback. Not all are convinced. Tom Ravasio is an ordained minister, author, certified pastoral counselor, and founder of the Shekinah Western Ranch Camp. Tom grew up with a God given passion for horses, which eventually led him to telling bedtime stories about the marvelous and heroic white horse of Revelation 19:11 to his children. These stories took on a metamorphosis of their own and later became pages of thrilling excitement for people of all ages. He and his wife Karen have three daughters and three grandchildren. The Ravasio family lives on a 20-acre horse farm in Monongahela, Pennsylvania.
