Many Shades of Success: Other Views of Post-Secondary Options
Historically, transitions are quite difficult for children and youths with learning disabilities. The child is entering a major life transition as he/she departs the relative cocoon of high school and enters the world of work or a post-secondary placement. This is not the end of a journey; it is the beginning of a new one. This extraordinary book of essays is designed to guide you on this voyage. An insightful, succinct, and reader-friendly book.
