When Liv Roberts finds her best friend dead in the apartment they share, her world is turned upside down. Who would brutally harm sweet, kind Rebecca? Only when Liv decides to investigate and starts digging into Rebecca's past does she discover a life her best friend hid from her for years: She was born and raised among the Amish. Joshua, Rebecca's estranged brother, is a man whose heart is closed off from the rest of the world. When Liv arrives at his front door, asking questions, he sees the beautiful outsider as the only connection to the sister he lost long before she died. Together, they work to unravel the tangled tapestry of two worlds which eventually led to Rebecca's murder - even as they grow dangerously close to each other. A wonderfully clean and wholesome Amish mystery story from Hannah Schrock, with suspense and the romantic interest that will keep her avid fans, enthralled until the revelations come in a surprising finale.
