Hidden Footprints of Unity: Beyond Tribalism and Towards a New Australian Identity

Arasa Arasa

Hidden Footprints of Unity: Beyond Tribalism and Towards a New Australian Identity Arasa Arasa What a beautiful mind! Hidden Footprints of Unity is a substantial work from an intelligent and spiritually perceptive man. Arasa has skillfully navigated his way through a vast array of subjects: the “strange sensitivity to skin colour by most adult whites … the search for the Divine … the desire by some to peer into the Void … the issues of a divisive tribalism and the imperatives of an evolving new Australian national identity”. Arasa has produced an eminently readable memoir, uplifting, provocative and well written. He writes with a light touch on complex issues. His use of pertinent, often amusing, quotes adds a further dimension to his vision of the inter-connectedness of mankind.
