Yet, they encounter an even scarier threat than the mundane world as they explore the city cemetery, mall, and other youthful haunts. An inquisitive blogger, George Warner, meanwhile accidentally incites social media vilification against a woman the police suspect to be a local Black Widow. What happens when you are no longer in control of your identity? Is there a way to save an innocent woman or is this mysterious Black Widow figure really more than they bargained for on George's blog?
