Will Faith Endure? (Frontier Faith Series) (Volume 2) Dr. R. T. Hirner
Wes Standard withdrew into a world of silence after witnessing his father's death. His tender age was all that kept him from joining the outlaw trail his older brothers had chosen. After one was killed and the other captured by DeLaPorte, the itinerant preacher and reluctant law-man, Wes sets out for revenge but finds faith instead. Once again, Wes' world is plagued by violence against those he loves. He again becomes cynical and silent. Just when it seems he may recover, another blow is struck to his already fragile faith. Wes strikes out on his own—for revenge or justice, no one knows. The question is not whether Wes will find his quarry, but how Wes will emerge when the quest is over—the silent, cynical Wes of the past, or the faithful, discerning Wes of late. Follow DeLaporte and his band of misfits as they face an even greater enemy than the evil gunmen of their day—the enemy within. They've proved faithful in the fight against the tangible. When faced with the unseen, Will Faith Endure?
