Your Own Hands: Self Reliant Projects for Independent Living Anna Twitto
Many would like to take a step towards becoming more self-reliant but don’t know where to begin. Others are theoretically interested in the idea but aren’t sure it’s realistic. In this book Anna Twitto, an Israeli nutritionist and simple living enthusiast, outlines some of the steps that can be taken by people wishing to reduce their dependence on mass production and paid services. From practical topics such as keeping livestock and home maintenance to discussing sustainable communities and alternative economy, Your Own Hands brings forward a refreshing point of view for those who aim to pave their own way in a consumerism-centered culture. Inside you will find: - Advice for newbie gardeners and backyard flock owners; - Tips for a basic healthy diet with minimum time and budget investment; - Insight on DIY building and home maintenance; - Tips for simple living with children; - Natural health, beauty and household recipes; And much, much more!
