A River So Long

Vallie Lynn Watson

A River So Long Vallie Lynn Watson
Luminis Books presents this exciting tale of travel, change, and finding one's self amidst it all.

Vallie Lynn Watson's debut novel follows thirty-something Veronica as she jolts between five-star hotels in New Orleans, New York, and the NorthCarolina coast.

Veronica's business keeps her on the move, and further strains her relationships with the already unsuitable men she's met along the way, not to mention her blink-and-you-miss-him husband.

A River So Long, like Veronica's life, is a fragmented conflation of time, place, and people--she's a gypsy, and the world she inhabits is, if not blurry, at least kaleidoscopic. This remarkable novel is a rushing, threatening, constantly changing scene with a tumultuous, multiplying cast.
