Apartment Living: Stylish Decorating Ideas for Apartments, Lofts, and Duplexes Caroline Clifton-Mogg
In cities everywhere, more and more people are discovering the pleasures and advantages of apartment living. Whether your apartment is in a converted brownstone of industrial building, or forms part of a purpose-built block, understanding both the fexibility and the limitations of the space available is the key to successful apartment living. Interiors doyenne Caroline Clifton-Mogg helps you answer questions like "How do I and my family want to live in this apartment?" and "What is the best way of making the space flow?. Caroline also looks at more specific issues, such as, "Will my existing furniture be the right scale?" and "What about storage? Lighting? Flooring?". "Apartment Living" examines the homes of a wide range of apartment-dwellers who have found innovative and original solutions to their own particular design conundrums. - Fabulous photographs by Winfred Heinze. - Full of inspiration for making the most of your space, whether you live in a loft in Manhattan, an attic in Paris, or a basement in London. - From the author of the bestselling "Curtains: A Design Source Book", "Tuscan Escapes", and "French Country Living".
