The third volume in The Cormac McCarthy Society's Casebook series, Beyond Borders: Cormac McCarthy'sAll the Pretty Horses, celebrates the 20th anniversary of the celebrated novel's publication. This edition takes a long, penetrating look at Cormac McCarthy's most beloved novel. As with our previous two casebooks, we have again rounded up a nonpareil team of established scholars, uniquely perceptive newcomers, and iconoclastic professional writers to treat this important work from as many interesting, provocative and entertaining perspectives as we can fit between its covers. Subjects include character studies of the novel's major players, historical background, stylistic and thematic analyses, and discussions about Billy Bob Thornton's film version of the book. This volume is an essential companion to the novel.
