The Royal Ballet Pocket Diary 2014

The Royal Ballet Pocket Diary 2014

The Royal Ballet is Britain's largest ballet Company and the Royal Ballet Diary 2014 celebrates its history as well as its world-class status. The diary includes evocative black and white photographs from the 1940s onwards - including images of Rudolf Nureyev and Margot Fonteyn - as well as contemporary color photographs of principal dancers and the Company today. Also included are posters, designs and costumes thus offering a glimpse behind the scenes of this world famous ballet Company.

This week-to-view diary is illustrated throughout with color and black and white photographs and is available in desk and pocket format.
