Two months of easy money...

At least that’s what Bronwynn thought she was getting into when she agreed to the housekeeping position at Timberpine Lodge. The rules are simple: keep the place clean, no contact with the outside world for the duration of her stay, and never, under any circumstance, go upstairs when the clients are present.

And finally, don't ask who the clients are.

The lodge has been closed to the public for the winter while the special "clients" take up residence just two floors above Bronwynn's head. Her contract is clear: the clients are completely off-limits.

But even Bronwynn knows that being trapped alone for two months in the middle of nowhere, snowed in for the winter, paths are bound to be crossed—and they are one night when one of the clients wanders downstairs.

When the two collide paths, and the drummer from Static Overdrive sends electrical pulses to all of her most sensitive areas, she can’t help but fall for the tattooed, muscle bound hunk. A chance like this is one in a million for ordinary girls like Bronwynn -- and she’s about to cash in on her number.
