My Five Senses (Science Mini Units) Jo Ellen Moore
Here's an effective supplement to any primary science curriculum. Students will use this book to learn about their own senses. Topics include: how eyes see, how ears hear, how a nose can smell, how a tongue can taste, how skin can feel, use your senses, and more. Lessons involve identification, matching, solving riddles or puzzles, coloring, and, naturally, use of their five senses.

Also includes six activity cards suitable for science center activities. Activities include: What do you taste?, What do you hear?, match the smells, alike and different, "feely box," and make a telephone. Clear, step-by-step instructions provided.

Simple, accurate line art illustrations throughout. Features two-sided, full-color pull-out poster about Using Your Senses on one side and The Five Senses on the other. All 16 pages perforated for easy removal.
