Amish Mystery and Romance: Drug of Choice Rachel H. Kester
Drugs, murders, criminals, and... an Amish girl?
Charity Shrock is a typical Amish girl enjoying the freedom of her Rumspringa. She works at a farm that doubles as an inn, preparing meals for the guests, cleaning their rooms, and longing for the farm owner's son, Jacob.
Her only trouble in the world is catching the young man's eye - that is until she witnesses two farm guests carting off a seemingly-unconscious man.They tell her he simply drank too much before they toss him in an SUV and drive off.
Charity is confused, but after cleaning up the numerous empty bottles in their room, she doesn't think twice about their story. Instead, she looks forward to spending time with Jacob at the bonfire, hoping she may win his favor at such an event.However, after multiple people in the neighborhood die from mysterious heroin overdoses, Charity's thoughts return to the three men.
Was the unconscious man actually dead? Are these the people responsible for introducing this heroin into the community? As she begins to investigate the men, her carefree Rumspringa takes a dangerous turn.
This time was supposed to be one of experimentation and growing, but Charity will soon realize that she will be lucky to make it out of Rumspringa with her life.
