My Two Hands, My Two Feet Rick Walton
Between a slow stretch in the morning and a tired flop into bed, a child's day is full of activity. The fun begins on both ends of this book and meets in the middle. Start with hands washing up and hiding surprises, or on the flip side with feet twirling and stomping. Kids' movements show how they're feeling, and this little gem captures two sisters as they go from energetic to tired-out and all the stops in between.

Everyone with small hands and feet is sure to be enchanted by Rick Walton's lively verse and Julia Gorton's vibrant illustrations.
