The Evening and Morning Journal: Count Yourself In: Let's Journal with Joy! Dr Lesley Ann Taylor, David R.P. Taylor
The Evening and Morning Journal is an ordinary book designed to have a remarkable impact. With its comfortable and accessible appearance, and its neat size making it easy to grab for any adventure, this book guides you along the road less travelled starting each day the night before when you notice good things before you sleep. Powerful because of its simplicity, this easy to use little book draws you in and keeps you journaling day after day even when other life adventures might be pressing you to quit. Daily journal pages, along with exhortations to kind deeds and encouragements from scripture, are sandwiched between an intriguing introduction to keys for sustaining intentional choices for life at the beginning of the book and the surprising appearance of a recipe for a brand of kindness made from chocolate on the last page. What more could you want in a journal than this?
