Dulcet Whispers Katherine Johnston
Dear Reader, these words you are about to read have come from within. They have blossomed from every emotion I have ever felt. They are part of me, and as you read them, I hope they become part of you as well. I hope you find comfort in the words of love and solace in the words of grief, for whatever you are feeling, there is always at least one person in the world who is feeling the same way. You are not alone.
