Stop Pressuring Me and Start.. Moniqua Flores
The purpose of this book is to encourage children who are being peer pressured to speak up and defend themselves by knowing the Word of God. Children will learn to articulate their feelings with others so that they will know how to treat them. Children will be introduced to Jesus and learn their value in Him. Children will also learn how to turn their bad situation into a good one. Children will understand not to fear because Jesus is here! If you or someone you know is being peer pressured tell someone before it is too late.
