Praise for joSon: Intimate Portraits of Nature
"Had Richard Avedon taken up gardening, he might have ended up with photos like these." -Sunset Magazine
"JoSon's modern tools illuminate traditional art in 'Fotanicals'" -SF Chronicle
"...as much as he treats them like supermodels, many of his subjects are actually the stalwarts of our gardens. California natives like poppies, highway landscape plants lily of the Nile, and even the flowering weeds that grow in sidewalk cracks have beauty and the potential to inspire." --SF Chronicle
Publisher description:
In "joSon: Intimate Portraits of Nature," the award-winning photographer joSon takes us on an extraordinary up close journey through his masterful lens. From the vivid colors, to the detailed textures of each petal, the large-format art book features more than 125 stunning photographs of flower in full of details colors. joSon's magic is his ability to bring movement to a still image. Each bloom is like a dancer performing on stage: light, graceful, full of life. His work is a stunning mix of the familiar with the exotic, includes: Poppy, Magnolia, Angel's Trumpet, Dragon Fruit, Puya, Pitcher Plant, Banana flower, as well as captivating collections of orchids and tulips. "joSon: Intimate Portraits of Nature" is both a botanical reference guide and a timeless visual feast for discovering the wonders of nature.
