Special Places to Stay: British Bed & Breakfast for Garden Lovers, 5th Nicola Crosse
This popular guide has delightful places to stay with fascinating gardens; from grand estates to small town plots, all over the country. In these places, you will meet owners with hugely different gardens: some will be finished masterpieces, others will be works in progress, but all will be talking points. Our owners are experts on their own gardens of course, but they can often organize private visits to other gardens, direct you to good local nurseries and give you the low-down on which public gardens to visit nearby.

“The ideal all-round publication for a gardener’s weekend away”
The Times
