May The Baddest Bitch Win 3 Jasmine Williams
For Princess, every time she thinks she finally has peace in the storm that she calls life, trouble lies in the wait. The day that Princess and her fiancée, Doja, welcomed their baby girl into the world was the one-year anniversary of the day that they had lost their unborn son. The date seemed to have been cursed because a few hours after her daughter was born, Doja was shot right outside of the hospital. Not knowing whether the love of her life was going to make it or not, Princess nearly lost of her mind. Little did she know, that was just the beginning of her troubles. A blast from the past pops in, and she has no idea what's about to come her way. Princess has always been known to be resilient, but there is only so much that one person can take before they break. A strong woman is able to roll with the punches of life, but with all the blows that Princess is taking will make a strong woman weak. Find out what happens with Princess, Doja, and their new baby girl, Amirah, in the finale installment of this series.
